

RESULTS : THANET MUSIC AND DRAMA FESTIVAL 2022

Nine Wellesley House pupils participated in classes in this years Thanet Music and Drama Festival: Alex Sant, Kaspar Lear, Raf Cable, Georgie Carter, Luna Sarafoglou, Lila Grady, Platon Shatokhin, Hector Hulme, Stas Shatokhin. All pupils equipped themselves very well and performed brilliantly and represented Wellesley House in the best possible way.

Poem: Years 5 – 6 (1st time entrants) 1st place: Kaspar Lear – 86;

Alex Sant – 82

Poem: Years 7 – 8: 1st place: Raf Cable – 86; Stas Shatokhin – 82

Prose Reading Years 5 – 6: 3rd place: Kaspar Lear

Public Speaking Years 7 – 9: 3rd place: Hector Hulme – 86

Poem: Years 7 – 8: 1st – 86 Hector Hulme

Prose Reading Years 7 – 8: Stas Shatokhin; Raf Cable;

Prose Reading Years 5 – 6: Luna Sarafoglou – 81; Lila Grady – 82: Platon Shatokhin – 83

Poem Years 5 – 6: Platon Shatokhin – 83; Luna Sarafoglou - ; Lila Grady –

(The Prose Reading and Poetry classes for Years 5 – 6 were very large – 24- and the standard was exceedingly high)

Solo Mime Years 7 – 8: Stas Shatokhin – 86

Monologue Years 6 & under: 1st 90 – Luna Sarafoglou – the only 90 in the festival! Luna won the Drama Cup.

Monologue Years 7 – 8: 1st place – 86 – Georgie Carter; Hector Hulme – 84; Raf Cable – 83.

So, Wellesley House won first place in 5 of the 10 classes that they entered. I was impressed with the confidence and performance skills which all of the pupils displayed. Also, they showed themselves to be very good audience members.

Thank you to all of my pupils, I am proud of you all.

Sue Flory